

It's Not Too Early to Plan Ahead!

Ringwood Town-Wide Yard Sale

Saturday Sept 24th and Sunday Sept 25th, 2016

9:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m. (Rain or Shine)

Do you have a cluttered attic or basement filled with treasures you want to get rid of? If so, start pricing your items!

Here is how the Yard Sale works-

Residents who would like to participate in the Town-Wide Yard Sale fill out a registration form that is on Borough website (www.ringwoodnj.net), or at Borough Hall. There is no charge to participate.

The sale is at your home and residents keep all proceeds made. No permit is necessary.

Once you register your home, your address will appear on a Town-Wide Yard Sale map that will be available free of charge to all visitors and residents who want to shop. Your address will also be listed on the Borough website along with a list of up to 3 items that you will have for sale (i.e. "Sports Equipment" or "Baby Items").

Maps will be available free of charge the week of September 14 at Borough Hall and the Ringwood Public Library. Maps may also be picked up after 9:00am on Saturday 9/24 and Sunday 9/25 at the Ringwood Farmer's Market (located at the Park and Ride on Cannici Drive).

This event will be advertised in The Bergen Record, The Suburban Trends and The Herald newspapers. It will also be promoted on Channel 77, the Ringwood Borough website, the Ringwood Library, the Farmer's Market, Craig's List and several Yard Sale websites.

Completed registration forms must be returned to Borough Hall no later than Wednesday August 31, 2016.
